We would love to keep you informed about what is happening at Ealing Synagogue with all our information and news.

Laws on data protection are changing from 25 May 2018 and we need your express consent to continue sending communications to you by email. This includes the newsletter, bereavement notices, events, etc.

Newsletters and event notifications will be sent from the Ealing Synagogue office.

Bereavement notices will be sent from the Ealing Synagogue office or from Brian Robinson.

All other community information will be sent from the Ealing Synagogue office.

So, if you want to continue receiving our communications by email, please send an email to office@ealingsynagogue.org.uk with the following statement (you can copy and paste it into an email):

I confirm that you may take this email as my express consent to continue sending me communications from Ealing Synagogue, and/or Brian Robinson in the event of a bereavement, by email.

Remember to include your name!

While we very much want you to stay with us, if you do not take any action by 25 May,
your name will be removed from our mailing list to comply with the new regulations.

Your name will be reinstated if you give us your consent in writing after this date.
