YOM HA'ATZMAUT THURSDAY 19 APRIL

VISIT TO THE DITCHLING MUSEUM OF ART

ELIZABETH FRIEDLANDER EXHIBITION

Elizabeth Friedlander fled Nazi Germany in 1936, and then a few years later Italy as the net tightening on Jews made it impossible for her to work. She took three treasures with her: two portfolios of her work and an early 18th-century Klotz violin that had belonged to her mother. The items – which stayed with her through her years working in England, and travelled again to her final home in Ireland – will be on display for the first time at the exhibition.

It will also include some of her wartime work – designs for food and clothing stamps – but she also worked forging Nazi documents and stamps for the Political Intelligence Unit. She designed Christmas cards for her colleagues in the unit, but only those in the know could have realised in 1942 that “The Season’s Greetings from Room 609A” came from within a secretive government department based at Bush House in London. She was EF; EH was the author Ellic Howe, an expert in psychological warfare and black propaganda.

A coach will pick up from Ealing Synagogue at 9.45am. A fee of £5.00 per person is payable to enter the museum, and £4.00 per person for a tour of the exhibition. An optional extra is a walking tour of the village, also £4.00 per person.

Maximum 20 people. The coach will be £20.00 per person. Payment for the coach and museum has to be made in advance.

Please RSVP to Marianne Temple by Monday 9 April at the latest.

NOTES OF HOPE

The extraordinary world premiere in Jerusalem of music rescued from the concentration camps

Out of the horrors, a joyful musical testament to hope.

Amidst the horrors of the concentration camps of the Holocaust, musicians kept playing and secretly composing. We know from the people and documents that survived, that they composed in the hope that their music would some day be played again.

For more than three decades, maestro Francesco Lotoro scoured the world looking for the hidden manuscripts and memories of the survivors, piecing together this precious musical testimony. The majority of the music is surprisingly joyful, despite the desperate circumstances in which it was composed and the likelihood that it would never be discovered.

On 15 April 2018, a unique concert hosted by JNF UK and KKL will be taking place in the capital of the Jewish nation, where this music will be played to a public audience for the first time.

In the presence of Mr Benjamin Netanyahu, Prime Minister of the State of Israel, Francesco Lotoro will lead musicians from The Ashdod Symphony Orchestra, alongside a new generation of musicians, including students from music schools in the Negev supported by JNF UK and KKL.

We invite you to witness this extraordinary story of defiance: a tribute to the memory of the murdered 6 million, and a joyous celebration of their hope and belief in the Jewish future.
