SHABBAT 31 AUGUST : ROSH CHODESH ELUL KIDDUSH

David Kochan has pleasure in inviting the Ealing community to Kiddush to say “thank you” to everyone for all the support and good will that has been extended to him in recent months. It is also his Bar Mitzvah sidra. Please join us in wishing David well.

MESSAGE FROM THE CO-CHAIRS

People attending shul on Friday nights and Shabbat mornings will, by now, have met our new caretaker/security guard, Dave Guyett.

Dave retired from his work handling freight at Heathrow Airport two years ago, since which time he has been considering taking up some part-time employment. This job suited him admirably and we look forward to his future engagement with the community. He has already made his mark by clearing the side and rear gardens, which had become so overgrown that we were unable to evacuate the shul during a recent fire drill.

His wife is a playground assistant and he has a daughter who is a nurse at Watford Hospital, whose children Dave and his wife regularly take care of.

We are especially grateful to Michael Franks for his help taking on extra security duties during the last few weeks. Thanks are also due to Nigel Bewley, who made himself available to cover gaps in security arrangements due to annual leave.

Best wishes,
Dawn and Mike

SUNDAY 1 SEPTEMBER
RICHMOND SYNAGOGUE
FILM: "THE GARDEN OF THE FINZI CONTINI"
DOORS OPEN 2.30PM; FILM STARTS 3.00PM

Set at the outbreak of War, De Sica's film tells the story of the Finzi Contini, an aristocratic Jewish family protected by the walls of their idyllic estate. Whilst outside Mussolini bans Jews from tennis courts, the Finzi Contini are not worried as they rally on their own, living in their dreamland. Giorgio (Lino Capolicchio) is the middle-class Jew in love with his childhood friend, Micol (Dominique Sanda) of the Finzi Contini family, but she is in love with a gentile and wanting of experiences outlawed by the new government. With Giorgio's separation of Micol, De Sica tracks the loss of an idyllic way of life, from the tennis courts to the waiting rooms where Jews await transportation to the concentration camps.

Fit for viewing by persons aged 12 years or more.
Run time: 90 minutes approx.
Spoken : Italian with English subtitles.

EALING ART TRAIL
6-8 AND 13-15 SEPTEMBER

Jen Henley and Susie Stone will be exhibiting as knot.just.stitch. Their work is mixed media on fabric and paper, handmade books, and a selection of women's shirts. Debbie Brenner and Jackie Heumann will be showcasing their jewellery under the trade name of Felicity Gail. Museums and galleries such as Tate and Royal Academy have commissioned them to create jewellery inspired by art collections. All worth a visit!

TUESDAY 10 SEPTEMBER
RACHEL KOLSKY: JEWISH LONDON ON LOCATION
EALING CENTRAL LIBRARY, 103 EALING BROADWAY CENTRE
6.30PM—7.30PM

Rachel Kolsky traces how London's Jewish journey has been portrayed on the page and the big screen. Among the literature and films profiled, discover The Lowlife, Sammy Lee, The Kid for Two Farthings, a Barber in Stamford Hill, a Rainy Sunday, Chicken Soup and the Ghetto. The newly released 3rd edition of her popular book Jewish London, co-written with Roslyn Rawson, is the only travel guidebook that focuses on the sights, heritage and culture of London's historic and present Jewish community.

This is a free event but click here to register.

THURSDAY 19 SEPTEMBER: 12.30 PM
COMMUNAL LUNCH

After the summer break, the next Communal Lunch will be on Thursday 19 September at 12.30pm (not Thursday 6 September as advised in last week's newsletter). Please contact Alison Shindler if you would like to attend.
